

Segments for heavy wear

The sheets have the dimensions 300 x 300 x 25 mm and a centre hole. The cast metal sheet enables a secure hold to be attained with only one screw, which means no more holes than necessary result. The tiles can be replaced independently in the wear area, without having to dispose of the areas retained. On request, the tile can be fabricated in two colours, thus serving for preventive maintenance.

